Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Sir:

This Petition is to accept an unintentionally delayed claim under 37 CFR 1.78(a)(3) for priority to four U.S. priority documents: 09/175,158; 60/062,924; 08/827,568; and 60/014,334.

In an Advisory Action mailed July 8, 2004 in the above-referenced application, the Examiner alleged that "there is no clear indication of the relationship of the [instant application, 09/881,012, to] application 08/827,568 in the first line of the specification or the ADS sheet" and that "failure to timely submit the reference required by 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2)(i) is considered a waiver of benefit under 35 USC 120, 121 or 365 (c) unless a petition to accept an unintentionally delayed claim under 37 CFR 1.78(a)(3), the surcharge set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(t), and the required reference, including the relationship of the applications (unless previously submitted) are filed."

08/02/2004 CCHAUI 00000044 09881012 1330.00 0P
01 FC:1454

Applicant maintains that the relationship between the instant application and 08/827,568 is clear from the record; and that the law firm which filed the instant application (from whom we have taken over prosecution of the application) inadvertently failed to indicate clearly the details of this relationship in the ADS accompanying the instant application.

The present application claims priority to two lines of cases. The four cases whose priority is claimed are indicated on the ADS filed with the present application (attached):

The first line of cases: the present application is a CON of 09/175,158 (filed 10/19/1998), which claims benefit of provisional application 60/062,924 (filed 10/20/1997). Proof that 09/175,158 (hereafter referred to as " '158") claims priority to 60/062,924 is provided by the Inventor Declaration in the '158 case (enclosed).

The second line of cases: the present application is a CON of 09/175,158 (filed 10/19/1998), which is a CIP of 08/827,568 (filed 3/28/1997), which claims benefit of provisional application 60/014,334 (filed 3/29/1996). Proof that 08/827,568 (hereafter referred to as " '568") claims priority to 60/014,334 is provided by the inventor Declaration in the '568 case and by the filing receipt in the '568 case (attached).

Connection between the two lines of cases: The filing receipt for the '158 case (2 copies attached) indicates that the '158 case claims priority to (in addition to 60/062,924) the '568 case and the provisional application to which the '568 case claims priority, 60/014,334. Clearly, the PTO has acknowledged that the '568 case (and its parent) are related to the '158 case, which in turn is a priority document for the instant application.

Applicants note that the filing receipt for the '158 states that the '158 case is a "CON" of the '568 case. The '158 case contains more information than does the '568 case. For example, the '158 case has at least 12 figures, whereas the '568 case has only 2 figures. Clearly, the '158 case is a CIP (not a CON) of '158. It is not uncommon for CIPs to be listed as CONs in the PTO records.

The attached copy of the ADS filed with the instant application indicates that the applicants clearly meant to claim priority to all four of the relevant cases: 09/175,158; 60/062,924; 08/827,568; and 60/014,334; and that the failure to indicate the precise relationship among these cases was an inadvertent error on the part of the law firm that filed the application. Present counsel first learned that priority was not considered to be properly claimed in the Office Action issued 4/22/2003. Applicants responded on 7/22/2003 that documents to which Applicants wished to claim priority were properly indicated. The subsequent Office Action, issued 10/3/2003, indicated that the Examiner still considered the claim to priority to be defective. Applicants further amended the specification to clarify the priority claim in the response filed 3/3/2004. The Examiner indicated in a subsequent telephone interview (about 7/1/2004) and an Advisory Action issued 7/8/2004 that Applicant's amendments were insufficient to satisfy the Office requirements for a priority claim, and that the present petition is necessary for a proper priority claim to be made.

It is respectfully submitted that from the time of filing of the application, responsible counsel made good faith attempts to claim the proper priority, and showed due diligence in correcting the priority claims upon learning of the alleged deficiencies in the priority claims.

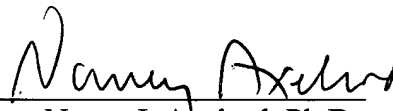

A supplemental ADS, which clearly indicates the relationships among the four priority documents is attached. Furthermore, an amendment to the first sentence of the instant specification, clarifying the relationships of the four priority documents to one another and to the instant application, is also attached.

Accordingly, it is respectfully requested that the claim to priority as set forth above and in the accompanying amendment and ADS be granted.

A check for the required surcharge set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(t) - $1330 - is attached. Should any additional fee be deemed due, please charge such fee to our Deposit Account No. 22-0261 and advise us accordingly.

Respectfully submitted,

Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

In response to the Advisory Action mailed July 8, 2004 in the above-referenced application, please amend the application as indicated below and consider the remarks which follow. A Petition to accept an unintentionally delayed claim for domestic priority, under 37 CFR 1.78(a)(3) and a supplemental ADS are also attached to this Reply.

Amendments to the Specification begin on page 2 of this paper.

AMENDMENTS TO THE SPECIFICATION

Please replace the paragraph beginning at page 1, line 8 with the following paragraph:

This application ~~claims priority to~~ is a continuation of Application Ser. No. 09/175,158 (filed Oct. 19, 1998, now abandoned), which claims priority to US Provisional Application Ser. No.s. 60/014,334, filed March 29, 1996 and 60/062,924 (filed October 20, 1997, now abandoned). Application 09/175,158 is also a Continuation-In -Part of, -and also to Application Ser. Nos. 08/827,568, filed March 28, 1997, now abandoned, which claims priority to US Provisional Application Ser. No. 60/014,334 (filed March 29, 1996).and 09/175,158, filed October 19, 1998. These disclosures are incorporated herein by reference for all purposes.

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

In response to the Examiner's request in the Advisory Action mailed July 8, 2004, applicants have amended the first sentence of the specification to more clearly indicate the relationships of the four priority documents to one another and to the present application.

In addition, a Supplemental ADS is attached, which further clarifies the relationships of the four priority documents to one another and to the present application.

Furthermore, a Petition to accept an unintentionally delayed claim for domestic priority, under 37 CFR 1.78(a)(3), is also attached, as is the requisite fee.

With regard to the Examiner Interview, applicant's representative agrees with the Examiner Summary of the substance of the interview. In brief, the interview covered the following items:

1. Claims: Mutually agreed upon claims were submitted in a supplemental Reply, filed July 6, 2004, in response to the outstanding final Office Action.

2. Priority to earlier U.S. applications: The Examiner is of the position that priority claims to earlier applications were not properly set forth. An amendment to the specification is set forth above and a supplemental ADS and a petition regarding the claim priority are filed herewith.

It is believed that, this formality having been addressed, the application is in condition for allowance, which action is respectfully requested. Should any issues remain that may be resolved by a telephone discussion, the Examiner is invited to telephone the undersigned.

A fee was paid for the second month extension of time with the Reply filed on July 3, 2004. Accordingly, a fee for the third month extension of time ($$950 - $420 = $530$) is attached. Should any additional fee be deemed due, please charge such fee to our Deposit Account No. 22-0261 and advise us accordingly.
